

Can't Be Denied

*Take my hand and feel the energy,
there's something that is wound up deep inside of me...
like a spring about to release in me.
So let the music play and feel love's sweet sincerity*

*Hold me close, around we go,
the scent upon your breath...
Oh! reveals something deep inside.
This love can't be denied.*

*As we dance, our minds are turning,
feel the pulse grow faster, yearning
for love... more love... your love...
this love can't be denied.*

*Now at last I know how to release
this passion that, with every beat of my heart, increases.
Take me home and turn me round and down,
I want to feel your touch, taste your lips, give you everything to satisfy.*

*Hold me close, around we go,
the scent upon your breath ...
Ah! reveals something deep inside
This love can't be denied*
